

Tapecon's "A Night at the Races"

On October 7, 2006, Tapecon cordially invited employees to a "Night at The Races" hosted by Batavia Downs Gaming and Racetrack in Batavia, NY. Batavia Downs is the oldest lighted harness track in North America, only a short drive away from both Buffalo and Rochester.

The Batavia Downs complex is an entertainment destination, featuring live and simulcast racing, 580 video gaming machines, off-track betting, superb food and drink, and a varied assortment of activities for everyone.

The evening included, for each employee and a guest:

Racing:

- Live horse races all evening, with a complimentary racing program for each person
- A special race named for Tapecon, a picture taken with the winning horse and the group's name on the tote board
- $5 betting voucher per person
- Simulcast racing shown from all over the country

Gaming:

- Video gaming complex featuring 580 machines to choose from
- Free $5 gaming voucher per person

Food and Drink:

- Separate tiered seating section in the Downs' Clubhouse restaurant
- Fresh fruit and cheese selections
- An assortment of hot hors d'oeuvres
- 2 Tickets per person to start off the evening with complimentary beer, wine, and well drinks, with a cash bar available.
